Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota is the home of Margaret Gibson, and we are richer because Margaret lives among us; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love, as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Margaret was born August 1, 1916, in White Lake, South Dakota, to Thomas Leo and Anna Brady; and,

Whereas, Margaret married Arnold Gibson on March 25, 1945, and to this union they were blessed with three children, three grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Throughout the years Margaret has enjoyed raising her family, babysitting, crafts, playing cards and bingo, and taking many trips to Chandler, Arizona; and,

Whereas, Margaret resides in Pierre, South Dakota, and will observe her 100th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her family and friends gather on July 30, 2016, to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 1, 2016, as in South Dakota, and I join all her many family and friends in wishing her a happy birthday.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Shantel Krebs, Secretary of State
